

Adrienne Aiona, Nominee for LWV of Portland Treasurer, 2021-22
(Filling out the second year of Don Brenneis' term)

Adrienne attended her first League meetings as an infant with her mother, Debbie Aiona, in Salt Lake City. Since then, the League has been part of her life through her Mom's activism and as a volunteer herself. After college, she joined the League and served on the Board from 2002 to 2008 as the Voter editor and Treasurer. For the past two years (2019 – present), Adrienne has served as the LWVPDX Budget Chair.

Adrienne is an engineer at the City of Portland Bureau of Environmental Services and manages a team that writes the codes and rules for the bureau. Adrienne has a 7-year-old daughter; she enjoys the theater, knitting, the outdoors and political podcasts.
