

Jen Jacobs

Jen joined the LWV last year and assisted Barbara Ross and the Police Accountability Study committee. She moved to Portland in 1993 from Minnesota and has worked and volunteered in Portland since then. Jen served on the Portland Women's Crisis Line (now, Call to Safety) board of directors; she helped with training volunteers and transporting domestic violence victims and their families. Jen also volunteered for teen homeless support centers (Greenhouse Center and Outside In.) Currently she is the neighborhood school PTA Treasurer and helping to set things up for next school year.

Jen has been very happy to help support the League of Women Voters by also participating in some budget committee sessions. She looks forward to being the Chair of the Budget Committee.
