

Sunny Sassaman

As a candidate for Maui County Council while residing in Hawaii, Sunny Sassaman first encountered the LWV and appreciated the engagement and emphasis on being aware and educated. The experience was positive and left an impression. Fast-forward to 2020. Sunny joined the LWVPDX to become better informed and engage in more meaningful dialog around the issues that we are facing locally and nationally.

Sunny is a professional mediator and conflict management consultant. She is currently the Board VP for the Oregon Mediation Association. A strong value in access to justice and fairness drew her to mediation. She enjoys spending time on the coast and travel, hiking, walking her dog and playing cribbage.
